Dear Sir,

Further to our letter dated March 25, 2020 informing temporary suspension of operations at the manufacturing units of the Company in view of COVID-19 pandemic, we would like inform you that the Company had sought approval from the concerned authorities for resumption of operations to manufacture 'Face Mask' which activity falls under services exempted from the restrictions imposed by the Government of Karnataka.

We wish to inform you that the Company has received approval from the concerned authorities for continuation of operations for manufacture of face masks, subject to adherence of the guidelines specified in the said approval.

The Company pursuant to the said approval has resumed manufacture of face masks with limited manpower and with all the necessary safety precautions and measures to protect its employees and workplace from the effect of corona virus.

The Management continues to monitor the situation closely and is taking appropriate steps / actions as per directions from State /local Authorities.

For your information please.

Yours faithfully,
For Gokak Textiles Limited

Rakesh M. Nanwani
